

I have become an active listener of KLOVE in the last year and it has helped me come closer to God as I commute in the morning between Morgan Hill and San Jose. If KLOVE were to be displaced because of changes in the LPFM regulations I might not find a station that puts out a positive message in the community. I have told several of my friends about KLOVE and I believe it is an important contribution to the community.